South Sudan new DDR policy ready for cabinet endorsement

Wednesday, 27 July 2011 07:34 South Sudan >>>

South Sudan's Disarmament, Demobilization and Reintegration (DDR) Commission said on Tuesday, that the new DDR policy complete and ready for submission to the Council of Ministers for endorsement. A member in the Commission, Ambrose Kambaya, told Radio Miraya on Tuesday that the new policy will empower ministries to implement the DDR program.

Meanwhile, a consultant in the Commission, Kees Kingma, said that more than 10,000 combatants have been demobilized in the last six years. He, however, noted that only one-third of the demobilized combatants, have received reintegration training, while some other former fighters were reintegrated into the national army.
